

The National Institute for Education and Leadership supports curricular development

In the January 30 and February 4, the academic community participated in a series of public consultations on National, organized by the Ministry of Education and Research of the Republic of Moldova, with the support of UNICEF Moldova. by curriculum, authors of textbooks and other curricular products, teachers, managerial staff, representatives of OLSDs, initial and continuous training institutions, as well as representatives of the National Council of Students.

In yesterday's consultation, February 4, 2025, participants had the opportunity to ask the authors- v. Andri?chi, A. Gremalschi, A. ?ibuleac, M. Marin, N. Veli?co - to clarify the new priorities in curricular development, but also the responsibilities that come to each party in this process.

Present at the event, Valentina Chicu, Councilor of the President of the Republic of Education The research emphasized the positive impact of the consultations, mentioning that the conscious and active involvement of all interested parties will determine the quality of the document and the new generations of the school curriculum. The reference frame of the national curriculum is elaborated with the support of UNICEF Moldova, with the financial support of the Global Education Partnership and can be consulted until 20.02.2025.

